Features: We're looking for a passionate and talented lead level designer to help make the magic happen on the Game Design team. You'll join a small, high energy game team, and you'll have the chance to make a big impact on the next version of FIFA. What you'll do: Work closely with the Game Designers and Producers, player analysts, and other members of the Game Design team, to create in-game decisions, features, new game mechanics, and new modes that will be included in the next version of FIFA. As a senior game designer on the Game Design team, you'll ensure the right decisions are made on the technical, strategic, and artistic levels. You'll also ensure that each decision, feature, new game mechanic, and mode are consistent with the FUT Game Experience. You'll work closely with other members of the Game Design team in order to create an immersive atmosphere within the game, and to deliver a polished product to our development team. You'll ensure that new game mechanics are consistent with the overall game design by understanding game systems and functions. You'll also be responsible for ensuring that new game features and game modes are suited for the current platform, especially on the new FIFA Mobile platform. You'll participate in the game design process for new game modes, by participating in playtesting as well as in working closely with Game Designers and Producers on new gameplay concepts. You will also be asked to contribute in the design of replay modes for various game modes. By wearing multiple layers of clothing and a head-mounted camera, you'll use motion capture to record the exact, detailed motions of players on-field. It's your job to prepare this data and input it into a simulation model so that you can create playable game mechanics and levels. You'll have multiple opportunities to submit your work to the team. You'll also be given the chance to work directly with the Producer and Game Design teams on a variety of tasks. This position is located in the Bellevue area. Remote work, part-time or full-time is possible. Responsibilities: As a Senior Game Designer, you will participate in all phases of the game development process. You'll be responsible for creating a world that will immerse the player in a unique

Growth in the energy drink industry has been on an uptrend for the past several years as consumers grew concerned about their health and wanted alternatives to the soda industry, which was hit hard by the 2007-2008 “diet soda” craze. According to Statista.com, the energy drink industry made $8.2 billion in sales in 2015, up from $7.2 billion in 2014. “It’s no mystery why the energy drink industry is growing like crazy,” said Diane Natali, CEO and founder of Plastic Logic, a company that prints high-tech medical devices on a 3D printer. “As Americans grow increasingly aware of the health and wellness risks associated with conventional sugary beverages, we’re seeing a shift toward nutrient-rich options, like those available in organic energy drink products.” In addition to good health, the energy drink industry has also benefited from the trend toward “clean eating” in recent years, Natali said. In response to public demand for products that adhere to the “clean eating” movement, the company has developed its SportBoost™ brand that offers a wide variety of energy drinks, ready-to-drink shakes

FIFA is a football simulation game that has been played in millions of homes around the world for almost half a century. Every year, the FIFA creative team works with the FIFA community to develop the world's favourite football gaming experience - from the clubs, players and stadiums to the way the game looks and plays. FIFA is unique for many reasons. It's the most authentic football experience on any platform. It's the biggest game in the world, with over 250 million players globally. It's the first football game in history with a licensing deal with the world's top 20 national teams and 24 of the world's top 25 football leagues. It's the #1 football game on Facebook. FIFA is the world's most popular sports game, and the only football game to sell more than 100 million copies. With every passing year, it continues to evolve to meet the needs of modern players and deliver the ultimate football experience. FIFA is a global sensation, and is the #1 sports game on PlayStation 4 and Xbox One. FIFA remains at the pinnacle of global popularity. It is the only football simulation to be rated 'Official Book of FIFA' by the Premier League. It is also the only football gaming experience to be awarded a 'Perfect 10' rating from The World Game.
