

another issue is balance of power in the region. the united states has no interest in balancing powers in the region and afghan forces cannot hope to become a regional power in their own right. it is part of the us strategy in the region that pakistan should return to a balance of power that favors the united states. this has been the reason for pakistan to maintain a military relationship with india and to lean toward that large country, while aligning strongly with saudi arabia and the united arab emirates. the approach has had merit, particularly with the emergence of a rising china, but it is an unreliable and nonstrategic relationship to have. pakistan is a smaller, weaker regional power, with no spare cash and no neighbors with any interest in competing with it. this will change when india is forced to develop the capability to protect itself and develop a large economy. with india increasingly focused on china, there may be an opportunity for pakistan to take advantage of this. yet, the likelihood of pakistan developing the capability to alter the regional balance of power substantially is low. whatever the outcome of the election, the government will face a difficult task. imran khan has important relationships in india and afghanistan, and he will be opposed by a coalition led by khans brother shahbaz sharif. assalamualaikkum plz help me im confused still i dont know what is durood e sharif whenever i search in internet i could see 1 to 10 duas (and each of one has the separate names) to be frank, is it all together known as durood e sharif or is there a particular single dua known as darood e sharif very recently i came to know about the power of this dua if it is not a single dua then i should learn the rest duas also

Wazaif or Wazifa is the repetition of words, clauses, and sentences i.e., Names of Allah Asma Ul Husna, Names of Beloved Prophet, Peace be upon Him, or other notions which were performed by Aulia Allah, Darood Sharif, Ism E Azam. These wazaif have powerful capability to transform one's self, circumstances, or even chemistry of the things with the help of ALLAH. Some Wazaif are extremely strong and requires you to properly ground the 'current', therefore you must be part of some Silsila (which shall act as a grounding system) and have proper permission to perform these special Wazaif, otherwise the results could be catastrophic. In case one has performed them without permission, should immediately start Darood Shareef and stop all other wazaif. Darood Sharif acts like first aid in grounding the excessive charge created by strong wazaif. 5ec8ef588b
