KonoLive

KonoLive is a mobile application designed to manage your interactions and collaborations with friends, colleagues, family and everyone in your life. Based on a multi-platform technology, our app allows you to communicate in real-time with your colleagues or friends. Your activities, interests, and time-related occurrences are synced in real-time, and you get more done because you're working with the people that matter. What makes KonoLive different from other solutions is its social platform, which allows you to get more done with the people you love. KonoLive's social platform connects you with your friends and colleagues to facilitate better communication and collaboration around your activities, interests, and time-related occurrences. •Who you work with will be available on the same platform - so there's no need to worry about the missing piece in the puzzle. •You'll be able to see all the different activities, interests and time-related occurrences that are happening in real-time - so you know that you're part of something bigger. •You can easily send your friends an invitation to join the conversations, just like you would any other social app. How KonoLive can help you be more productive: We believe that it's much easier to be more productive when you have a platform that can facilitate the sharing of your activities and time-related occurrences. KonoLive is the perfect solution for: •This includes our app, our platform, our cloud services and our mobile app. •This includes our app, our platform, our cloud services and our mobile app. •This includes our mobile app. •You can access your events from anywhere, and from multiple devices. •You can access your events from anywhere, and from multiple devices. •This includes our mobile app. •You can easily share your photos with friends and colleagues. •You can easily share your photos with friends and colleagues. •This includes our mobile app. •You can easily invite your friends to collaborate with you. •You can easily invite your friends to collaborate with you. •This includes our mobile app. •You can easily find your friends, and invite them to collaborate with you. •You can easily find your friends, and invite them to collaborate with you. •This includes our mobile app. •You can easily find your friends, and invite them to collaborate with you. •This includes our mobile app. •You can easily find
